5. ELECTION SIGNS

With regard to the placement of election signs, of paramount importance is the protection of public safety and public amenities. Please pay particular attention to the information regarding election signs that is attached to this document.

6. VOTERS LIST

As a candidate you are entitled to one free copy of the Voters List. You should be aware that under the law any person inspecting or using the Voters List must only do so for bona fide election purposes. Candidates (and their official agents) are responsible for protecting the confidentiality of the Voters List, and for ensuring that all persons in their organization who have access to a Voter List, do likewise. A signed "Undertaking and Acknowledgement of Receipt of Voters List" must be filed with the Chief Election Officer, Town of Lake Cowichan before such lists are released to candidates. Voters Lists must be stored securely so that only authorized individuals have access to the information contained therein. As noted on the "Undertaking and Acknowledgement of Receipt of Voters List", information may not be used, copied, or distributed, in whole or in part, by or for any person, in any form whatever, except for civic election purposes. Misuse of the information is subject to serious penalties under the Election Act.

 - on waste receptacles; or
 - on Town buildings, municipal property or structures.
- Election and political signs that have a sign face of no more than 0.6 metres square in area (approximately 2 x 3 feet) may be placed on a Town-owned boulevard.
- Larger signs may be placed at the entrance wye.

Election Signs on Private Property

- Election signs are permitted on private property, without the need for a sign permit, between the dates of September 22, 2018 and October 22, 2018 provided that the property owner consents to the placement of the sign.
- Property owners would be within their rights to remove and/or dispose of signage that has been placed on their property or on boulevards adjacent to their properties without permission.
- Election signs on private property at intersections, must not obstruct sight lines as shown in the diagram, attached to this information sheet.

Hazardous Placement of Election Signs

- Election and political signs must not be placed on public or private property in such a manner as to create a hazard for pedestrians, cyclists or vehicles.

- Additionally, election signs must:

 - not obstruct, simulate or detract from a traffic control device or traffic sign;
 - not become unsightly or dilapidated if damaged; and

Election Signs at Intersections

Election signs must not obstruct the line of vision at an intersection between the height of 0.9 metres (2.95 feet) and 3.0 metres (9.84 feet), as measured from the top of any curb fronting a parcel (or if there is no curb, as measured from the crown of the roadway) in the area shown in the illustration below:

Election Signs Near Voting Places at the time of Voting

- Under the Local Government Act, it is an election offence for an election sign to be located within 100 metres of a voting place during voting proceedings. This includes signage on private property.
- Contraventions of this law and other election offences carry serious penalties which could include fines, imprisonment, and prohibitions against voting in local elections and/or holding an elected local government office.
- Election signs found within 100 metres of a voting place on Saturday, October 20, 2018 or on any of the advance voting days, will be removed immediately without notice under the authority of the Chief Election Officer.

Enforcement and Penalties

- Election Office staff are available to answer your questions about the lawful placement of election signs.
- It is the responsibility of each candidate, elector organization and any other individual who places election signs in the community to ensure compliance with the bylaw in order to avoid the potential inconvenience and cost of enforcement and/or sign removal.
- Where time permits, and the sign is not considered a safety hazard, the candidate or elector organization may be given the opportunity to remove the improperly placed sign.
- The Town will remove signage without prior notice if a sign is considered to be a safety hazard; if it is located within 100 meters of a voting place at the time of voting; or if a candidate or elector organization has not removed a sign in a timely manner after being notified or has been non-responsive to such requests.
- The Town is not responsible for the loss or damage of election signs that are placed in the community or removed under the bylaw.
- Election signs that are removed by the Town will be held at the Town Works Yard and may be disposed of without further notice if not claimed within seven days. Signs may be claimed Monday through Friday between 8:15 am and 4:30 pm.
- A person who places election signs in contravention of the sign bylaw or fails to comply with the campaign period requirements may be subject to election offence charges and penalties. For signs that are placed in contravention of the bylaw, a penalty of $100 may be imposed for each offence and may be applied for each sign and for each day in violation of the bylaw.
- Complaints: Complaints regarding illegal sign placement should be directed to 250-749-6681.
